The screenshot shows the 'Printed Materials Catalogue' website. At the top, there is a language selector with 'eng' and 'rus' options. Below this, the page is divided into two main sections: 'Search' and 'Electronic catalog: Search'. The 'Search' section on the left includes links for 'New arrivals', 'Simple search', and 'Advanced search', as well as categories like 'Authors', 'Publishers', 'Series', and 'Category'. It also features a section for the 'Электронный каталог Мандельштамовского центра' and a 'Help' link. The 'User account' section is highlighted with a red underline and contains input fields for 'Library card number' and 'Password', along with an 'Enter' button. The 'Electronic catalog: Search' section on the right has a 'Search' button and a 'Search History' link. It includes a search instruction: 'Enter the search parameters and click "Search". When shortening a word in a search...'. Below this are several search criteria rows, each with a dropdown menu and an input field: 'Title', 'Author', 'Publisher', 'Series', 'Category', and 'Document language'. There is also a 'Year edition' field with 'from:' and 'to:' sub-fields. A checkbox for 'Documents with full text' is present. The 'Filter by document type:' section has a checked box for 'All document types'. The 'Filter by branches:' section has a checked box for 'Library of HSE'. At the bottom of this section are buttons for 'Search all branches' and 'Invert selection on branches'. Finally, there are 'Search' and 'Clear' buttons at the very bottom of the page.
